

Golden Key Advisor Competency Model

How to Propose a Session for the Conference

Great Golden Key conference sessions include a combination of relevant content, useful tools and active learning. Your brief proposal should show clearly that you are including all of these elements. Please complete the brief questionnaire below.

1. Proposed title of the session
2. How does this relate to the Golden Key Advisor Competency Model? What area of the model does it address? Leadership and Facilitation Skills is the selected theme for this conference
3. What learning outcomes will your session achieve? (List learning objectives: At the completion of this session, participants will be able to...)
4. Provide a very brief outline of your session. Include at least 15 to 30 minutes of an ACTIVITY such as small group discussions, brainstorming, skills practice, etc.

Please see the following outline as an example to help you think about an effective session.

DRAFT

2009 International Conference—Proposal Outline

Advising 101

10:45 – 11:25am (50 min)

Facilitators: Joe Brown and Jane Smith, Blue and Gold University

Learning Objectives: At the completion of this session, participants will be able to:

- Apply strategies to ensure a successful membership drive
- Encourage students to promote the chapter on campus by planning meaningful events
- Outline professional goals on how to improve advising skills

Facilitated Session

Overview and Purpose

- I. Application of Advisor Competency Model: Leadership Skills
- II. Building better relationships between officer core and advisor

Membership Drive

- I. Overview of Current Process
- II. Sophomores and Graduate Students: How to make it work
- III. Strategies for improvement
- IV. Chapter Funding and Accountability

Motivating Student Participation

- I. Increasing member participation
- II. Strategies to improve campus and community visibility
- III. Use of incentives
- IV. Supporting chapter events

Activity

- I. CoA Outreach: Sharing of Success Stories
- II. Personal Accountability: Strengths and Weaknesses as an advisor
- III. Brainstorming strategies on ways to improve advising skills
- IV. Goal Setting for 2009-2010 membership season

Wrap-up and Thank You